SLC Interiors

Bring Beauty Home

Our work with studio SLC Interiors exemplifies our keen ability to align with a designer's vision for a residential space. The design firm's location in Boston entailed a remote collaboration with clear, active communication from our team. Drawing from our extensive library of designs, we created custom hand-knotted rugs to integrate with unique requirements across a series of interiors. Meticulous attention to texture and color completed each room — a contemporary piece tied in the blue accents of a cozy den, and an understated grand-sized rug illuminated the airy elegance of a spacious living area.

My Gingerland

An Unmatched Selection

Our collaboration with design studio My Gingerland yielded vibrant interiors brought to life with globally-sourced pieces from our vast, in-stock collection. Silk and wool rugs featuring abstract, monochromatic designs were tailored to precise dimensions to suit each room, and our showroom's convenient location on Union Square allowed for close guidance from
